JUDGMENT

Raja Saeed Akram Khan, ACJ—When the learned counsel for the petitioner was confronted that the learned High Court has not passed any adverse order rather directed for providing an opportunity of hearing to both the parties and pass an appropriate order; he submitted that he would be satisfied if a direction for expeditiously concluding the matter is issued to the concerned. Mr. Babar Ali Khan, Advocate, the learned counsel representing respondent No.1, also agreed with the proposition.

2. In this situation, this petition is disposed of with a direction to the official respondents to decide the matter in accordance with the spirit of the impugned order of the High Court within a period of two months from communication of this order.

This petition along with petition for leave to appeal is disposed of in the above terms with no order as to costs.
